

TOPICS

His first trip to Europe

Rizal as a student in the UST

Persons he met in Spain and the organizations he joined

His activities to Barcelona and Madrid, Spain

Rizal life in Madrid as a student of Medicine and Philosophy at Univ Central de Madrid

Rizal joined freemasonry

His life in Berlin, Heidelberg, Germany

His life in Paris France as an ophthalmologist student

Junto Al Pasig

His departure from Europe and returned to Calamba, Laguna

Intimate Alliance between Religion and Good Education

A Filipinas

"Philosophy and Letters and later Medicine"
Suggested by:
Father - Pablo Ramon

Rizal as a student in the UST

- His father liked it (Francisco Engracio Rizal Mercado y Alejandro)
- He was still uncertain as to what career to follow. ( asking Father Pablo Ramon an advice )

His first trip to Europe

- for the first time in May 3, 1882
- traveling to Europe primarily to continue his medical studies

Freemasonry

Rizal left Manila for Singapore on May 3, 1882 without the knowledge of his mother and Spanish authorities and friars

Jose Rizal, a 4th year student of University of Santo Tomas, was disgusted of the educational system and racial issue there. So, he decided to leave UST and continue his studies in Europe instead with the support of his older brother Paciano.